Conflict of Interest Policy

Conflict of Interest

1. Introduction:

- 1.1 This policy applies to all Hampshire Training staff, trainers/assessors and internal quality assurers who are involved in the routine function, training and assessing activities of Hampshire Training.
- 1.2 All those involved with Hampshire Training delivery and assessment of ITC First qualifications have an obligation to act in a way that does not lead to any conflict of interest.
- 1.3 Definition:
A conflict of interest may occur when the personal or business interests of an individual conflicts with their professional duties and responsibilities. Such conflicts could result in damage to the integrity and reputation of the ITC Awards Hampshire Training deliver or compromise the validity of a learner assessment and the award.

2. This Policy:

- a) Provides a mechanism to protect the course learners and the integrity of ITC Awards by ensuring that reasonable steps are taken to mitigate any potential or identified conflicts of interest.
- b) Identifies the main areas where a conflict of interest could occur in order to minimise and eliminate adverse effects
- c) Complies with regulatory bodies requirements and policies

3. Examples of Conflicts of Interest

The following list is not exhaustive but common examples:

- a) Direct or indirect financial gain as a result of actions or involvement;
- b) Direct or indirect benefits such as employment, gifts, hospitality;
- c) Reciprocal arrangements, which compromise the ability to make reliable and professional judgements;
- d) Connections to family relationships and/or close friendships with learners who are being assessed,
- e) Connections with family members and/or close friendships for training and external assessing of learners,
- f) Trainers with family or close friendship connections who internally assure/verify each other's courses/assessment decisions,
- g) Assessment judgements on behalf of a learner who is their partner or close friend.

4. Declaring a Conflict of Interest

- 4.1 Hampshire Training take all reasonable steps to ensure a Conflict of Interest does not arise however if this is not possible the following steps will be taken:
 - a) Declarations of actual or potential Conflicts of Interest must be made in writing or by telephone (followed up with written confirmation) to Hampshire Training as soon as they arise.
 - b) Hampshire Training inform the awarding body of such conflict prior to any training/assessing/quality assurance activity being undertaken and seek advice.
 - c) Hampshire Training will log all Conflicts of Interest and make the log available to the awarding body and/or regulators as requested (Appendix 1).
 - d) Failure to inform Hampshire Training or the awarding body aware of actual or potential Conflicts of Interest may result in sanctions being applied.
 - e) Hampshire Training Manager will make an annual declaration regarding the status Hampshire Training Conflict of Interests (Appendix 2).
- 4.2 This policy must be reviewed and confirmed by each member of Hampshire Training staff. A signed copy should be returned to Hampshire Training
